

Introduction to New Material: Vocabulary

DOMESTICATE

PUEBLO

WATTLE

BASALT

PETROGLYPH

CEREMONIAL

AWL

KIVA

HUSBANDRY

OCHRE

ARCHAEOLOGY

EXCAVATION

ARTIFACTS

MOLT

FLETCHING

HYPOTHESIS

FRACTURE

GENETIC

CROP

AMARANTH

AVIARY

INDIGENOUS

Introduction to New Material – Vocabulary

GLOSSARY

Domesticate	To convert plants or animals for human use
Pueblo	Southwestern Native American tribes living in adobe or stone multistory dwellings
Wattle	The flesh hanging from chin of a turkey
Basalt	A dark volcanic rock
Petroglyph	Prehistoric rock carving or drawing
Ceremonial	Relating to events of a religious or public nature
Awl	A small pointed tool used by prehistoric people to make holes
Kiva	Underground ceremonial chamber for Pueblo people
Husbandry	Care, cultivation and breeding of plants and animals
Ochre	Pigment containing ferric oxide
Archaeology	Science that studies ancient people and how they lived
Excavation	Remove earth carefully to remove buried remains or artifacts
Artifacts	Anything made by humans
Molt	Annual shedding of old feathers to make way for new growth
Fletching	Feathers on an arrow that give it balance and trajectory
Hypothesis	A theory
Fracture	Break in a bone
Genetic	Relating to heredity
Crop	Extension of a turkey's esophagus that stores food
Amaranth	A grain planted by pueblo people
Aviary	A group of cages or enclosures where birds are kept and/or bred
Indigenous	People who are native to an area