

Ginger Beer

One pint of molasses and two spoonfuls of ginger put into a pail, to be half filled with boiling water.

When well stirred together fill the pail with cold water, leaving room for one pint of yeast, which must not be put in until lukewarm.

Place it on a warm hearth for the night and bottle in the morning.

Try this recipe at home and tag us on Instagram
@nmhistoricsites and #fortseldenhistoricsite

NEW MEXICO

HISTORIC SITES