

To Keep Carrots, Parsnips, Beets, or Sweet Potatoes

These should all be housed before the first frost. Range them side by side and bury them in dry sand with a bed of sand at the bottom and another between each layer of the vegetables with yet another thick sand covering over the whole.

When wanted for use begin at one end and draw them out in regular order—and not out of the middle till you come to it.

Try this recipe at home and tag us on Instagram
@nmhistoricsites and #fortseldenhistoricsite

NEW MEXICO

HISTORIC SITES