

Bats of the Chihuahuan Desert

Resources Used

“A Brief History of Bats,” Canadian Wildlife Federation, <http://blog.cwf-fcf.org/index.php/en/a-brief-history-of-bats/>.

“Bat Masks,” Bat Conservation International, <http://www.batcon.org/resources/media-education/learning/bat-masks>.

“Bat Pollinator Activity Book,” BCI Handouts, Bat Conservation International, <http://www.batcon.org/resources/media-education/bci-handouts>.

“Family Sense,” AZA Bat Taxon Advisory Group, Association of Zoos and Aquariums, https://www.speakcdn.com/assets/2332/activity_-_family_sense1.pdf.

“Frequency of Bat Sonar,” The Physics Factbook, Hypertextbook, <https://hypertextbook.com/facts/1998/JuanCancel.shtml>.

“How Do I Compare to a Bat?,” BatsLive, Prince William County Schools Network, https://batslive.pwnet.org/edubat/final_how_do_i_compare_to_a_bat_west.pdf.

“How Do You Measure Up?,” AZA Bat Taxon Advisory Group, Association of Zoos and Aquariums, https://www.speakcdn.com/assets/2332/activity_-_how_do_you_measure_up1.pdf.

“Up, Up and Away,” Rangers in the Classroom, Sequoia & Kings Canyon National Park, National Park Service, <https://www.nps.gov/teachers/classrooms/up-up-and-away.htm>.

“What is frequency?,” Qualitative Reasoning Group, Northwestern University, <http://www.qrg.northwestern.edu/projects/vss/docs/communications/1-what-is-frequency.html>.